

Research Methodology Sample Questions

Q No	Text of the Question	Option 1	Option 2	Option 3	Option 4
1	A good theory is	Precise, complex and testable	General, parsimonious and testable	Precise, parsimonious and testable	Precise, parsimonious and untestable
2	A radiation based expensive medical equipment has to be tested on humans. It could be potential hazardous (harmful) to the subjects in the long term. The research must not be done considering the	Cost	Availability of subjects	Ethical Standards	Difficult methodology
3	A researcher would like to investigate if the Indian Government's Swacch Bharat campaign has been successful in reaching rural India and if yes, what it's impact has been. Such research can be called	Experimental research	Basic research	Clinical research	Applied research
4	Case study research	Studies an issue within a bounded system	Cannot be used in quantitative studies	Must be restricted to a person or group of persons	Uses grounded theory approaches
5	Standard deviation; divided by its mean and expressed as a percentage is	Standard error	Coefficient of variation	Coefficient of co-relation	Regression coefficient